

ADMISSION CRITERIA

Persons who are not Polish citizens can be admitted by the Warmia and Mazury University Conditions for admission of foreigners to studies depends on their legal situation.

Therefore:

A. Foreigners can be admitted on the basis of the same qualification procedure that applies to Polish citizens, provided that they:

- have obtained a permit for residence in Poland;
- have been granted refugee status in the Republic of Poland;
- have been granted temporary protection in the territory of the Republic of Poland;
- are migrating employees with EU Member State citizenship, provided that they are or have been employed in Poland, or are family members of such migrating employees and reside in the territory of the Republic of Poland;
- are citizens of an EU Member State, provided that they have financial resources necessary to cover costs of living during their studies, such persons are not entitled to receive bursaries or maintenance grants.

Interested persons should submit documents to the Dean's Office of the Faculty of Biology and Biotechnology by the closing date specified by the Selection Committee.

B. Other foreigners can apply for admission to study with the omission of the enrolment procedure obligatory for Polish citizens, as:

- Holders of scholarships granted by the Polish Government – enrolment for candidates to study in Poland is carried out by Polish diplomatic and consular agencies in the countries of their residence. They also direct persons lacking Polish language skills to Polish language courses conducted by institutions approved by the Ministry of National Education.
- Holders of scholarships granted by the Polish Government receive a monthly bursary during the academic year to cover costs of living in Poland. Candidates should report to the University before 1 October, and their documents are to appropriately transferred earlier by the Bureau for Academic Recognition and International Exchange or the Department of the Polish Language for Foreigners.
- Holders of scholarships granted by the sending party, without bearing any costs for studying

Candidates for studies should submit a set of documents by 30 June (in person or by registered mail) to:

Vice-Rector for Development of Education and Student Affairs
University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn
Oczapowskiego St. 2
10-719 Olsztyn, Poland

or to:

Office for International Cooperation
University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn
Oczapowskiego St. 2, room 221 A
10-719 Olsztyn, Poland

The office is open daily (except Saturdays) between 8 a.m. and 2 p.m.
( <http://www.uwm.edu.pl/bwz/en> )